Peterson Health Care, Inc.
Serving our Community for Three Generations

Arthur & Wihelmina (Ma) Peterson established Peterson Nursing Home with a four bed facility in 1950. In 1976 their son LaRue and his wife Iris Peterson purchased the facility and rebuilt.

Crystal Peterson is a third generation owner and administrator of Peterson Health Care, which consists of a 54 skilled bed Nursing Facility and an Assisted Living of 20 apartments, she took over in 1998.

It is the purpose of this organization and employees to provide a homelike atmosphere and a feeling of security for its residents. We provide loving care to enhance residents quality of life. Our pledge is to deliver high quality care in an environment respectful of residents dignity and privacy and to be responsive to our residents emotional and social needs. Crystal considers it a privilege to give back to those people who have helped make our community what it is today.
